

MERRYL LLOYD AAGMS.TD, LAGMS.TD, Ex.Cert. (IMEB) F.IMEB

Merryl has had a love of Speech and Drama from an early age when she began learning at 6 years old. This led to a love of creativity, literature and performance. She is passionate about teaching and imparting knowledge and confidence to those interested in improving communication skills.

She has an Associate and Licentiate Diploma through Australian Guild of Music and Speech and is an accredited Examiner for the IMEB and is also a member of the board. She has also an honorary Fellowship through the IMEB for her contribution to Speech and Drama through her career as a teacher.

Merryl has taught in private schools and currently teaches at Knox Grammar School and conducts a private studio in North West Sydney. Through her teaching years she has seen many pupils graduate with high levels in performance and teaching diplomas through the IMEB. Merryl believes it is a privilege to inspire and encourage others into the art of creatively communicating.

Merryl has been adjudicating many eisteddfods and festivals throughout Australia and Internationally. She has also established the examining board of the IMEB in Sri Lanka to assist children to learn English. She loves to encourage participants and help realize their potential in performing.

She has had extensive experience as a teacher, examiner, workshop presenter and adjudicator. Merryl has also been involved in many creative productions in direction and also performing. She is also a supporter of the Riverside Theatre Parramatta.
