

Natalie Somerville

Natalie began her professional career on the international stage, working in Musical Theatre, Commercial Dance, Film and Television. Theatre credits include the Australian tour of 'West Side Story' with London's 'West End' performing credits including the musicals; 'Fame', 'Footloose' and 'Never Forget'. Natalie was also cast in the Asia tour of 'Saturday Night Fever', and featured as one of 5 contemporary dancers on the 1st World Tour of Michael Flatley's 'Celtic Tiger'. Natalie's career has also included a range of performance opportunities on television and film, with highlights including Kevin Spacey's feature film 'Beyond the Sea' and the BBC Drama 'Waking the Dead'. She has also made several appearances on a variety of entertainment shows in the UK; including, 'Night Fever' (BBC), 'Strictly Dance Fever' (BBC), 'This Morning' (ITV) and 'Mr and Mrs Celebrity' (ITV)- dancing for a variety of high-profile artists in the entertainment industry. TV commercials include McDonalds, Mitsubishi and T-mobile, with original cast and film recordings including the musical 'Never Forget' and 'Celtic Tiger'. Early in her career, Natalie also completed several contracts as a dancer with 'Princess Cruises', which presented additional experience working with world renowned choreographers and directors on original productions.

Trained in RAD Classical Ballet and CSTD Tap/ Theatrical, Natalie studied dance training in Melbourne, completing fulltime courses in both Classical Ballet and the Performing Arts.

Today, Natalie is a Choreographer, Adjudicator and Secondary Dance and Drama Teacher at Mercedes College in South Australia, graduating from the University of NSW with a Bachelor of Dance and Education in 2014. In her new roles, Natalie thrives on inspiring the next generation performers across all styles of dance. As such, she is thrilled that she has been able to mentor and teach artist, that are currently working professionally within the Musical Theatre and Dance industry today.